Schedule: Flexible Shifts (15-40 hrs/week)

Experience Required: None

Education Required: No degree necessary

Position Overview

A growing direct-to-consumer digital wellness company is hiring for Remote Copywriting Jobs that blend persuasive communication with live customer messaging. If you're looking for a way to apply your writing voice while working from home, this role merges the power of conversational copy with the structure of customer support.

You won't be cold-pitching or writing sales letters. Instead, you'll be handling live chats with customers and applying brand-aligned messaging to guide product decisions, highlight benefits, and resolve concerns—all using written communication and pre-approved phrasing designed to convert.

Primary Responsibilities

This is a messaging-first role where creative writing meets live support. You'll combine empathy, accuracy, and subtle persuasion across customer interactions.

Your Day-to-Day Will Include:

- Responding to customer chat inquiries through the brand's website or social media
- Using templates and adjusting tone to match brand voice and drive conversions
- Explaining product benefits in clear, engaging, on-brand language
- Helping customers make informed purchase decisions without pressure
- Logging common objections and feedback for marketing copy updates
- Closing each chat with clear action, resolution, or upsell tag (if applicable)

Why Writers Love This Role

- You're actively looking for copywriting jobs that are remote but want steady
