Entry Level Online Positions That Pay $25–$35/hr | Remote Work with No College Degree Required

Description

Looking for Your First Remote Job? These Entry-Level Roles Pay Well, Train Fast, and Start Immediately

If you searched “entry level remote jobs,” you’re probably ready to ditch the grind and start earning from home—without needing years of experience, a degree, or a tech background. These jobs pay $25–$35 per hour, offer flexible scheduling, and give you the real-world remote experience you need to launch a new career—100% online.

What You’ll Be Doing

This role is designed to help first-time remote workers get up to speed fast. You’ll receive paid onboarding, step-by-step task instructions, and ongoing support. You’ll work from your own space, choose your own hours, and complete task-based assignments at your own pace.

Example daily tasks include:

- Responding to support tickets or chat messages with saved replies
- Reviewing digital files for accuracy and tagging flagged items
- Uploading documents or product content using simple dashboards
- Formatting and organizing internal records in Google Docs or Sheets
- Tracking task progress and submitting daily status reports
- Moderating user-submitted content to keep communities safe and organized

You won’t be on calls. You won’t be in meetings. Just focused, written work you can do from anywhere.

What You Don't Need

- A degree or certificate
- Previous job experience (remote or otherwise)
- Any customer service or sales background
- A phone line or video setup—this is a non-phone position
- A rigid schedule—you set your own shifts

What You Do Need

- A laptop or desktop computer (Mac or PC)
- Reliable internet connection (minimum 10 Mbps)
- Ability to type 40+ words per minute
- Attention to detail and the ability to follow step-by-step instructions
- Availability for 15–30 hours/week (schedule is flexible)
- Self-discipline to stay on task without supervision

Pay, Perks, and Work Style

- Pay rate: $25–$35/hour
- Weekly or biweekly direct deposit
- Paid onboarding (1–2 days of training content)
- Flexible scheduling—you choose your hours
- Task-based workflow—no time tracking, no micromanagement
- Optional growth paths into higher-paying specialist roles

A Typical Day

You log into your dashboard at 9 AM, complete 20 product reviews for accuracy, respond to 10 chat tickets using saved responses, and tag a batch of flagged images. You take a break when you want, then return to upload and reformat a few support docs. You're done by noon and already ahead of the game.

What Workers Are Saying

"I didn't have a clue how remote jobs worked before this. Now I'm making great money and learning something new every week." – Marcus W., Ohio

"This is the first job that actually trained me, respected my time, and let me work on my own terms." – Kayla T., Texas

FAQs

Q: Can I apply if I've never had a remote job before?

Yes. These are true entry-level roles with built-in training and support.

Q: Are there phone calls or meetings?

Nope. This job is 100% written communication—chat, documents, dashboards.

Q: How flexible is the schedule?

You set your weekly availability and select from open shifts that fit your life.

Q: What happens after 30 days?

Many workers are promoted into specialized roles or higher-paying projects after a strong first month.
