Facebook Content Creator – Remote Work, No Degree or Experience Required

Description

Position Summary

The Facebook Content Creator position is a fully remote opportunity for individuals who want to generate consistent income online by sharing high-performing short videos—without recording, editing, or showing their face. As a Facebook Content Creator, you'll post pre-made Reels that promote a ready-to-sell digital course priced at $47. For every purchase made through your unique link, you receive that $47 directly. It's a straightforward way to earn from the world's largest social media platform using a system designed for beginners, with no previous experience, followers, or technical knowledge required.

About the Opportunity

This position gives you a behind-the-scenes role in the booming world of digital dropshipping—selling done-for-you digital products for 100% profit. The entire system is pre-built for you: from your sales page and video library to your payment setup. You'll simply post the provided short-form content (optimized for Facebook's algorithm) and watch it generate engagement and sales organically.

You're not responsible for product creation, customer support, or advertising. You just post the content. Everything else—from hosting to product delivery—is automated, allowing you to work part-time hours while maintaining complete control of your income.

Key Responsibilities

1. Post Daily Facebook Reels

You'll receive over 500 faceless, ready-to-upload videos designed to catch attention and encourage viewers to visit your sales page.

2. Copy and Paste Captions

Each video includes a pre-written caption and hashtags tailored to maximize reach. You'll never have to write content yourself.

3. Track Engagement and Sales

Use your personal dashboard to see views, clicks, and sales in real time.
