How You Earn Income

Instead of being paid by the hour or per task, you earn royalties from every book sold. Once your book is published, it becomes a long-term digital asset that earns for you continuously.

Example Income Potential:

- Book priced at $7.99
- You earn ~$5.59 per sale (at 70% royalty rate)
- 100 sales per month = $559/month in royalties from one book
- 5 books selling at that level = $2,795/month in passive income

Because your books remain available 24/7 in the Kindle Store, readers can find and purchase them around the clock, without any further work from you.

Benefits of This Role

Earn While You Sleep

Once a book is published, it can continue to sell for years. You'll earn royalties daily, even when you're not actively working.

Work from Anywhere

This opportunity is fully remote. You can manage your publishing portfolio from anywhere in the world.

Make Your Own Schedule

Whether you have five hours per week or twenty, you can make progress at your own pace. There are no mandatory shifts or fixed deadlines.

Creative Freedom

You get to choose what topics you publish in and how your books are structured. You'll enjoy full ownership of your intellectual property.

Scalable Model

Many participants start with a single book and go on to publish 5, 10, or even 50+ books. Each one builds on your overall income potential.
