About the Company

A high-growth digital subscription platform providing online education tools, coaching programs, and personal development content is hiring for live chat jobs hiring now remote. With a mission to provide calm, reliable, non-phone-based support, this company offers fully remote positions that allow team members to earn weekly, set their schedules, and help users through written communication—no speaking, no Zoom, no cold calls.

Position Overview

If you're seeking live chat jobs hiring now remote, this role gives you the chance to step into a structured support environment with clear workflows, templated replies, and real-time help when you need it. You'll assist users with login recovery, billing concerns, subscription management, and general navigation via chat and email platforms.

Key Responsibilities

- Respond to inbound customer chats and email tickets using saved replies and templates
- Troubleshoot login, billing, and subscription-related issues
- Guide users through platform navigation and product features
- Escalate technical issues or escalated cases to designated teams
- Maintain accurate notes and apply proper tagging to each support case
- Keep written tone clear, empathetic, and professional

Why This Role Is a Great Fit

- Immediate start with fast-track onboarding
- 100% written messaging—no phone or video communication
- Weekly pay, direct to your bank account
- No degree or experience required
- Choose your own shift times to fit your life

Tools & Requirements

- Laptop or desktop computer with Google Chrome
