Online Content Writing Assistant | $25-$35/hr | Remote No Experience Needed

Description

Job Title: Copywriting Assistant (Entry-Level)
Pay Rate: $25-$35/hour
Location: Fully Remote – Open to Global Applicants
Schedule: Flexible – 15-30 hours/week
Experience Required: None
Education: Not required

Role Overview

Our client is expanding their digital marketing content team and is looking for Remote Copywriting Assistants to support with short-form writing, content formatting, and editorial updates. If you've been searching for “copywriting jobs remote” and want a role where you can learn while you earn, this position is ideal for beginners and developing writers.

This is not a freelance marketplace gig or speculative content mill. You'll be part of a structured workflow with clear briefs, deadlines, and feedback from editors. All training is provided, and the work is non-client-facing.

What You'll Do

You'll help brands produce and organize marketing content, often using prewritten copy, brand voice guidelines, and templated materials. Your tasks will vary based on the type of campaign, your writing comfort level, and the client's vertical.

Example tasks:

- Writing short blog intros, product descriptions, and email copy
- Formatting Google Docs using templates and house style rules
- Summarizing long-form text into snippets, tweets, or social captions
- Inserting SEO keywords and adjusting tone per client brief
- Collaborating in shared docs, dashboards, and editorial calendars
- Reviewing AI-generated copy and editing for clarity or flow

A Day in the Life

You start your shift at 2 PM and review a brief requesting 3 product blurbs and a tweet thread summary. After writing and formatting the content, you submit your doc, log your time, and tag your editor. You take a break, then return to organize articles into folders and prep them for the next writer—quiet, productive, and well-compensated.

What Our Writers Say

"I had never written professionally before this. The structure made it easy to get started, and now I'm doing real copywriting every day." – Leo C., Ireland
"I've worked freelance before, but this was the first remote job that gave me steady tasks, clear deadlines, and paid training. I love it." – Rina M., Malaysia
