About the Company

A high-growth digital brand specializing in eLearning and lifestyle subscriptions is hiring for remote customer experience jobs no experience required. These are beginner-friendly roles ideal for people looking to break into remote work, support a growing customer base, and get paid hourly to help people—without phone calls, video meetings, or hard selling.

You'll be working entirely through live chat and email, answering questions about access, billing, product features, and account management. We'll train you on everything—so whether you're switching careers or looking for your first remote opportunity, you'll be fully supported.

Key Responsibilities

- Chat and email with customers about subscriptions, access issues, product questions, and promo codes
- Use saved replies and response templates to speed up interactions
- Troubleshoot basic problems and escalate more complex tickets when needed
- Keep detailed chat/email summaries for internal visibility
- Be friendly, calm, and clear in every written response

Why This Role Works for Newcomers

You're searching for remote customer experience jobs no experience because you want:

- A reliable remote job that doesn't gatekeep entry by requiring years of experience
- Flexible scheduling that works around your lifestyle
- Clear direction, structure, and training from day one
- Hourly pay with no phone work or video calls

This is one of the most accessible online roles available—and a perfect way to start building a support career.

A Sample Shift

You choose a 10 AM-3 PM shift. First chat: a user wants to change their billing plan—you help them navigate their dashboard. Next, someone can't log in—you reset their credentials. Then, a user needs a discount reissued—you send them a new link. Every message is written, every step is guided, and you finish your shift without a single phone call.

What Other First-Time Agents Say

"I had zero experience when I applied. This company walks you through everything, and now I work 25 hours a week from home with full flexibility." - Tammy S., Ontario, CA

"Not having to talk to anyone on the phone is a game-changer. It's calm, clear work and they train you to succeed." - Jabari M., Atlanta, GA

FAQsDo I really not need experience?

Correct. We train all agents from scratch and provide templates for most responses.

Is this chat only?

Yes. No phones, no video—just written communication.

Can I choose how much I work?

Yes. You control your schedule, with a 15-hour minimum.
