About the Company

A subscription-based health and wellness brand is actively hiring for remote customer service representative no degree positions to expand their virtual support department. If you're looking for a job that pays well, doesn't require a diploma, and lets you work from home without ever picking up the phone, this is it.

All interactions are done through live chat and email, not phone or video. You'll be helping customers access their accounts, apply discounts, and resolve issues—all using pre-written responses and easy-to-follow workflows.

What You'll Be Doing

- Handle customer questions about product usage, orders, billing, and delivery through chat or email
- Use saved response templates to answer FAQs accurately and quickly
- Escalate technical or unresolved issues to Tier 2 support
- Update customer records and tag support topics for reporting
- Manage 2–4 conversations at once while maintaining a professional, helpful tone

Why This Role Works for You

You searched for remote customer service representative no degree because you want:

- Legitimate work-from-home opportunities that don't require a diploma
- Real hourly pay with consistent expectations
- No phone calls, no sales pressure, and no commute
- Training that sets you up for success—even if this is your first support role

You'll get everything you need to succeed, regardless of your education or background.

You'll Succeed If You Have

- A computer (Mac or PC) with Chrome installed
- A reliable internet connection (10 Mbps minimum)
- Typing speed of at least 45 WPM
