About the Company

A well-known digital subscription service in the wellness and self-help space is expanding its remote support team and hiring for remote email support jobs no degree required. These roles are fully email-based—no phones, no live chat, no Zoom meetings. Just clear, structured written communication to help customers with simple issues like billing, access, and product questions.

If you're looking for a quiet, detail-focused remote job that offers consistent pay and total flexibility, this role is built for you.

Key Responsibilities

- Respond to customer support emails in a calm, helpful tone
- Use saved templates and internal SOPs to answer common requests
- Handle billing corrections, subscription adjustments, and access resets
- Escalate unresolved issues through ticketing workflows
- Track resolution notes, tag emails by topic, and follow brand tone guidelines
- Work independently and stay focused during scheduled blocks

Why This Role Is a Great Fit

You're looking for remote email support jobs no degree because you want:

- Real work-from-home income that doesn't require a diploma
- A quiet, typing-based job with no speaking required
- The ability to work from anywhere and choose your own hours
- A beginner-friendly path into remote support roles

This job doesn't require any experience—just focus, clear communication, and a willingness to learn.

What You'll Need

- Laptop or desktop computer (Mac/PC)
