Online Positions Near Me No Prior Experience | $25-$35/Hour Chat-Based Support - Local Adaptability, Nationwide Opportunity

Description

Think You Need Experience or a Big City Zip Code to Work Remote? Think Again.

You searched for “remote jobs near me no experience” because you want something real and local-feeling—but with the flexibility to work from anywhere in your area. You’re not alone. We’re hiring Entry-Level Remote Chat Support Agents who are ready to get started from any location in the U.S., even if you have no prior work experience. You’ll earn $25-$35/hour, set your own schedule, and get trained to support customers using tools anyone can learn.

No suits. No phone calls. No degree. Just you, your laptop, and an opportunity that finally says yes.

What This Job Involves

You’ll respond to customer inquiries via chat—helping them manage accounts, resolve basic issues, and find what they need. You’ll use saved replies, knowledge base tools, and simple workflows to move through each chat smoothly. If anything’s outside your scope, you escalate it. It’s calm, consistent, and made for people just starting out.

Responsibilities

- Log into your dashboard during your shift
- Handle 2-3 live chat conversations at a time
- Answer basic customer questions using templates and help docs
- Record notes and close out cases cleanly
- Escalate complex issues with a single click
- Maintain tone, clarity, and accuracy in all written responses

Hiring organization

Remote Work From Home Chat Support

Employment Type

Part-time

Industry

Customer Service

Job Location

Remote work from: United States

Base Salary

$ 25 - $ 35

Date posted

April 29, 2026

Valid through

01.01.2029

This Job Is Perfect For

- People in small towns, suburbs, or rural areas who want to break into remote work
- First-time job seekers or career switchers
- Parents, students, or caregivers looking for schedule flexibility
- Anyone tired of in-person jobs with rigid hours or long commutes
- Fast learners who like solving problems with structure

What's Not Required

- A degree or certification
- A background in customer service
- Phone calls or video meetings
- Living in a major city or tech hub
- Any previous remote work experience

What You Do Need

- A typing speed of at least 40 WPM
- A personal laptop or desktop (Windows or Mac)
- A stable internet connection (10 Mbps minimum)
- Basic written English skills
- A quiet space to work during your shift
- At least 15 hours/week availability (more = faster promotion track)

Pay & Perks

- $25/hour base pay
- Surge pay and performance bonuses up to $35/hour
- Paid training starts within 3–5 business days of hiring
- Biweekly direct deposit
- Choose your own schedule—mornings, evenings, weekends
- Optional health, dental, and vision benefits (after 60 days for full-time)

- Promotion opportunities into training, QA, or workflow teams

A Typical Shift

You log in from your home in a small town—or maybe a city apartment. First chat: someone wants to update their email—you guide them through the steps. Next: a customer needs to pause their subscription—you send the correct link and tag the case. You manage multiple chats using clear guides, track your performance, and log out knowing you did great work without ever leaving your zip code.

What You'll Learn

- How to deliver customer support using best-in-class platforms
- How to work independently and still feel part of a team
- How to manage multiple conversations calmly
- How to grow from entry-level into real remote career paths
- How to succeed from wherever you are

What Local Agents Say

"I thought remote work was only for big-city tech people. I live in a tiny town and this job works perfectly with my life." – Bri M., Iowa

"I didn't think anyone would take me seriously without experience. This company did—and now I'm thriving from my living room." – Sean D., Mississippi

FAQs

Q: I don't live in a major city. Can I still apply?

Absolutely. We hire from across the U.S.—no city requirement.

Q: Will I need to be on the phone?

Nope. This role is entirely chat-based.

Q: Do I need a strong résumé?

Nope. Just a good attitude, the ability to type clearly, and the willingness to learn.

Q: Can I pick my own hours?

Yes. You'll choose your availability weekly.
