About the Hiring Company

A digital-first customer care firm that supports global eCommerce and SaaS businesses is hiring for remote live chat jobs to help expand its international 24/7 support infrastructure. The company's services revolve entirely around real-time messaging—no calls, no cold outreach, and no complicated tech. This is a true entry-level remote position offering stability, consistent pay, and maximum flexibility.

Job Summary

In this role, you'll assist users via a secure live chat interface, offering support for login problems, subscription changes, account questions, and general customer inquiries. You'll follow proven workflows and utilize internal tools designed to help even first-time agents deliver a smooth customer experience.

Core Responsibilities

- Manage multiple chat conversations using an internal dashboard
- Use prewritten templates to respond to common customer concerns
- Troubleshoot basic access, billing, and user issues
- Escalate unique cases as needed to senior support
- Accurately tag and close conversations following SOPs

Why This Job Stands Out

- No phone calls, video meetings, or voice work required
- Set your own hours with full shift flexibility
- Paid every week—no delays or thresholds
- Ideal for entry-level workers and career changers
- Structured onboarding makes the first shift easy

Requirements

- Computer or laptop with updated browser (Chrome preferred)
- Reliable high-speed internet (10 Mbps+)
- Typing speed of 45+ WPM
- Proficient written English with attention to clarity and grammar
- Ability to follow directions and focus independently
