Description

Job Title: Online Live Chat Support Assistant (Remote, Entry-Level)

Compensation: $25-$35/hour

Location: 100% Remote – Accepting Global Applicants

Schedule: Flexible Shifts (Minimum 15 hrs/week)

Experience Required: None

Education Required: No degree required

Position Overview

A rising digital education brand is hiring support agents for Remote Online Jobs with No Experience Needed, focusing on live chat messaging for customers across their platform. Whether you're brand new to the workforce or simply new to working online, this role offers a solid entry point—with hourly pay, full training, and zero phone calls.

You'll engage with customers through a secure live chat interface, helping them navigate learning portals, access digital downloads, and manage account questions. No sales, no upsells—just helpful responses and clean communication.

Your Responsibilities

This role is entirely written—ideal for those who communicate clearly in text and prefer structured, behind-the-scenes work.

Your Daily Duties May Include:

- Answering incoming live chat questions about courses, content, or accounts
- Providing direct links to tutorials, bonus content, or downloads
- Helping new customers apply welcome codes or reset login credentials
- Reporting recurring customer questions to the internal team
- Logging completed chats and submitting end-of-shift summaries

Why It's a Great First Online Job

- You're specifically looking for remote online jobs that require no experience
- You want a beginner-friendly position with structure and reliable income
- You're comfortable typing and prefer written roles over voice or video
- You want to grow professionally without cold calling or content creation

What a Shift Looks Like

You begin your 6 PM shift and are welcomed with three open chats: one customer wants help finding a PDF guide, another needs to re-download their certificate, and a third has a question about course access expiration. You use prewritten responses with personalized tweaks, wrap up 19 chats in 3.5 hours, and submit your recap—all in writing, without a single call or meeting.
