Online Revenue System Trainee | Learn AI-Powered Client Acquisition

Description

Want to learn how to set up revenue-generating systems from home using the same tools top agencies rely on—without needing a degree, previous experience, or a product of your own? This entry-level remote role shows you how to build client acquisition systems using automation, AI, and proven templates.

About This Role

As a Remote Revenue Systems Trainee, you'll be guided through a 5-day challenge that walks you through setting up a complete lead generation and follow-up system using AI-powered tools and drag-and-drop automation. You'll learn how to attract leads, deliver value, and close clients on autopilot. No tech skills needed. No prior sales or marketing background required. If you've been looking for a way to break into remote work and master a skill that's both scalable and in-demand, this is it.

Key Responsibilities

Build an AI-Driven Outreach System

- Set up a CRM pipeline to manage and track leads
- Use prebuilt AI messaging frameworks to start conversations automatically
- Implement smart follow-up workflows via email and SMS

Configure Lead Capture & Booking Funnels

- Customize drag-and-drop landing pages for lead collection
- Integrate appointment scheduling into your funnel system
- Tag and segment leads based on behavior or funnel stage

Monitor & Optimize Engagement

- Track open rates, responses, and appointment conversions
- Adjust automations and messaging timing based on performance
