Description

Job Title: Remote Social Media Live Chat Assistant (No Content Creation)
Compensation: $25-$35/hour
Location: Work from Home – Global Access
Schedule: Flexible Shifts (15-40 hrs/week)
Experience Required: None
Education Required: Not required

Position Overview

An established direct-to-consumer nutrition brand is now offering Social Media Jobs from Home—but not the kind that expect you to become a creator, influencer, or unpaid intern. This role puts you behind the scenes as a live chat assistant, supporting customers via DMs and on-site chat systems.

You'll use structured templates and reply flows to help users with questions about orders, shipping, discounts, and more. You won't be required to post, grow pages, or manage campaigns—just offer helpful responses through messaging platforms like Instagram and Facebook.

Your Responsibilities

Your work will focus on written interaction—nothing public-facing, no phone calls, and no real-time voice communication.

Daily Duties Include:

- Responding to incoming customer chats via Instagram, Messenger, and live site widgets
- Assisting with order questions, promo code usage, or account navigation
- Using prewritten responses and tone guidelines to maintain consistency
- Tagging complex issues for follow-up by billing or product teams
- Logging daily shift completion with a short recap

Why This Job is Different

- You're searching for legit social media jobs from home that pay real money
- You don't want to be on camera, write social posts, or worry about engagement metrics
