YouTube Automation Manager – Remote Role | No Experience Needed

Description

Position Summary

The YouTube Automation Manager position offers a modern, hands-off way to generate consistent online income from home. You'll oversee a ready-to-run YouTube Shorts channel powered entirely by pre-made videos that promote a $47 digital product. You don't have to film, edit, or appear on camera — everything is automated for you. Every sale made through your videos pays you $47 directly, with no middleman, ads, or clients involved.

About the Role

YouTube automation has become one of the fastest-growing online business models — but until now, it required complex editing, scripts, and expensive freelancers. This role eliminates all of that. As a YouTube Automation Manager, you'll be given a complete content library, done-for-you system, and dashboard that tracks every click and sale. You simply upload, schedule, and let the automation do the rest.

You'll receive:

- 500+ ready-to-upload YouTube Shorts
- Pre-optimized titles, descriptions, and SEO tags
- A done-for-you website that processes each $47 sale automatically
- Complete setup instructions that take under an hour
- 30-day WhatsApp mentorship for your first 50 sales

Once your system is live, your role is simply to maintain uploads and review daily performance.

Key Responsibilities

- 1. Upload or Schedule Pre-Made Videos – Post 2–3 Shorts per day using YouTube Studio or the mobile app.
- 2. Apply SEO Metadata – Use provided titles, tags, and descriptions to boost visibility.
- 3. Track Results – Watch your dashboard to monitor clicks, reach, and $47 payments.
- 4. Stay Consistent – Maintain a simple posting rhythm; consistency drives YouTube's algorithm.
- 5. Collaborate with Mentorship Team – Use direct chat support to refine your posting strategy and scale.
